MEETINGS DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

13. (SBU) On March 17, the EXBS Advisor, EXBS Program Assistant, Pol-Econ Officer, and two representatives from the Department of Energy (DOE)-- Michael Bedke, Middle East Regional Manager for the Megaports Initiative, and Mario Pereira, Project Manager for International Security and Nonproliferation -- met with Lt. Colonel Naji al-Abri, Directorate of Investigation and Risk Assessment, Royal Oman Police (ROP) Customs, and Lt. Abdullah al-Raqmi, Directorate General of Civil Defence, ROP. Meeting participants discussed the emergency response protocol at the Port of Salalah, the preferred procedure for requests of duty-free release of equipment, and a proposed anti-money laundering training course.

14. (SBU) On April 20, the EXBS Advisor advised First Secretary Yaqub al-Ruqaishi, Director of the Disarmament & Arms Control Office, International Affairs Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, of the 10th Annual Export Control Conference scheduled to take place in Istanbul from July 25-27, 2009.

TRAINING CONDUCTED DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

15. (SBU) The EXBS Advisor and EXBS Program Assistant attended the Regional Workshop on the Implementation of UN Security Council Resolution 1540 which took place in Doha, Qatar from March 8-11 (ref B).

16. (SBU) The EXBS Advisor and EXBS Program Assistant accompanied a delegation of ROP Customs Officers to the International Border Interdiction Training (IBIT) which was conducted in McAllen, Texas during the week of March 23, 2009 (ref A). During one of the practical exercises at the Hidalgo Bridge crossing, one of the ROP Officers referred a vehicle for further inspection. The inspection revealed a significant load of marijuana (59 kilos) which had been concealed in the four tires of the vehicle.

17. (SBU) The EXBS Advisor had his mid-term consultation visit to Washington, DC from March 30-31, 2009.

18. (SBU) The EXBS Advisor and EXBS Program Assistant attended the first week of the Export Control Academy at the Center for International Trade and Security, University of Georgia, in Athens, GA from April 13-17.
